Bachelor thesis considers design and implementation of information system for capital broker based on client – server architecture. System provides storage for most important evidencies - clients, contracts, payments, trade orders and other respective evidencies. System also provides functionality for creating sevices of Centrálny depozitár cenných papierov SR and operating trades through Burza cenných papierov Bratislava. All operations accord to legal conditions of Slovenská republika.