

Abstract

The bachelor thesis, in its introduction, briefly summarizes the concept of children's reading. It also focuses on the influence of the family on children's reading. Subsequently, an overview of searched European research devoted to child reading and analysis of selected research with recommendations for Czech research „Czech children as readers“ is processed.

Keywords

Children, reading, research, Europe, family