

This thesis presents design and implementation of a simple editor of vector graphics with possibility of import and export to SVG (Scalable Vector Graphics) format. In contrast to other vector editors it also supports creation of graphic objects connections that keep some user-defined constraints in the graphics drawn.