

Cyclop is intrusion detection system. This tool provide for network administrator way to easily monitor unwanted or potentially unsecure network traffic. Cyclop is able to detect portscans, can perform pattern matching against regular expression and filter traffic with pcap filter (as known from tools like tcpdump or ethereal). All this rules are configurable through smart configuration file.