

The management of the environmental education in selected Europe countries

Bohunka Vrchotická

ABSTRACT

The diploma thesis deals with environmental education in selected countries of Europe. The thesis describes the method of description and comparison. The thesis seeks to answer the question of whether environmental education in selected European countries differs significantly.

KEYWORDS

Management, environmental education, social responsibility of educational organizations, methods, instrument, target group.