

The thesis deals with the philosophy of George Berkeley as the analysis of mistakes. It traces Berkeley's attempts to explain the deeper levels of mistakes, namely the level of abstract ideas, categorical mistakes and furthermore, the deepest and most fundamental level, the level of linguistic mistakes.