

Abstract

Title: The safety situation and precaution at elementary schools

Objectives: To create a complete file containing information about the elementary school safety

To declare the safety situation at elementary school v Sadech

Methods: recherche, analysis, synthesis, questioning, structured interview

Results: The result of this work was the composing of document describing the safety condition at schools. In the first part, the information about the role of integrated rescue system. In the second part, the school is introduced as soft target that is protected from two perspectives – by closing the building or leaving the building. In the third part, the particular analyses of elementary school Sady is provided. The absence of safety awareness to the aggressor inside the building was identified.

Keywords: integrated rescue system, elementary school, soft targets, fire protection, extremal