

Abstrakt

This bachelor thesis is dealing with upbringing and education of children in the organization Junák – Český skaut after year 1989. The goal of the thesis is to describe an essence of the Scout training. We can find a value framework, presented in the Scout Promise and the Scout Law. Also, education areas and the Scout training method are participating on a children formation. Furthermore, this theoretical work is describing ways, that are presented in the education procedures of the organization. In the thesis ending, we can find a summary and an analysis of bringing up children in the Junák organization.