

Abstract

The aim of this bachelor thesis is to carry out a deeper analysis of the journeys in selected novels from the book Exemplary Novels by Miguel de Cervantes, which include: The Little Gypsy Girl, The Lawyer of Glass, The Deceitful Marriage and The Dialogue of the Dogs. It aims to analyse the journey on which the characters have gone. It identifies what their mission means to them, and how their journey to the world has changed them. Individual chapters of the thesis focus on each story in detail and look at the topic from the perspective of the main characters. The type of path and the motive for its realization is determined for every story, and the thesis also focuses on new worlds which the characters explore throughout their journey.

Key words

journey, cognition, traveling, world, characters, Exemplary Novels, Miguel Cervantes