

This bachelor thesis will consider Bayesian approach to statistics and then apply it on decay constants in 'resummed' chiral perturbation theory. It will also discuss how important it is to state one's assumptions. The results will be in the form of reasonable restrictions one can place on the parameters of the theory.