

ABSTRACT

The bachelor thesis focuses on Nature Reserve V Pískovně as the place of school botanical excursion. The theoretical part covers fundamental information about the nature reserve and also describes some plant and animal species. The practical section especially discusses proposal lessons that could be carried out before and after the excursion. Excursion and associated lessons should pupils to create positive relationship to nature.