

Annotation

The goal of bachelor's thesis is to analyze quality of life children with hydrocephalus with installation ventricle-peritoneal shunt. In the thesis there are given details on problems, which arise from leave hospital and treatment at home. Thesis inquire problem's influence on quality of life illness children and their families.

A quantitative observational study is made of questionnaire that include 9 parts about future children's life. Physical effort was researched on diseased children from neurosurgery clinic.