

History of the Museum in Písek

Abstract

The aim of this thesis is to introduce the history of the museum in Písek, from its establishment in 1884 to present. Thesis tries to chronologically cover all important events in the history of this institution. The main topics are management of the museum, further the making of the collections, exposure and scientific activity of the museum. Introduced are directors of the museum in Písek and their branches. The main sources of the informations were archive materials and annual reports of the museum.