

Annotation

Bachelors thesis is directed at perceived quality of life patients after total hip replacement. It contains theoretical and research parts. Theoretical part is consist of two parts: first part is about characterization of total hip replacement, second is about quality of life and their meaning at National Health Service. Research part is concern of questionnaires research. It passed of one hundred patients at Medical spa Bohdaneč. It compared quality of life before and after operation.