

ABSTRACT

This dissertation thesis deals with the issue of music education in the Children's Home Klánovice. The main goal of the dissertation is to evaluate the impact of musical activities on the development of social and educational skills of children living in Children's Home Klánovice. A combination of qualitative research tools was used to achieve the main goal. Achieved results have shown that musical activities have a positive impact on the development of many areas of life of children living in Children's Home Klánovice. On the basis of the outputs we can claim the introduction of the term special music education.