

Anglická anotace

Summary

Spirituality of laymen and new church movements

Bachelor study, named „Spirituality of laymen and new church movements“ is describing increment of laymen`s sense, especially after The Second Vatican`s Council and their spirituality, which is more and more realised in new church movements and communities.

Study advancing through the continuity of themes, which are stepwise describing and defining main points of the laymen`s spirituality and new church movements.

Conclusion of this study describes common activity of new movements and communities in Czech republic.

Key words

Spirituality, laymen, new movements, new evangelization, Pentecost.