

Abstract

This presented Bachelors thesis examines wars between George of Podiebrad and Mathias Corvinus. It aims on the military tactics and mostly the czech one, in the context contemporary political situation and diplomatic negotiations. Main used seources were Staré letopisy české and german written Chronicles by Eschenloer and czech and german millitary orders. It forwards assessment of the situation of czech warfare in 2. half of the 15. century and analysis of the millitary operations.

Key words

15.century, George of Podiebrad, Matthias Corvinus, crusades, second hussite war, Lands of the Bohemian Crown, Wagon fort, Hussite warfare, Frankenstein