

Object this thesis ascertainment of stress factors and its occurrence on Cardio — Surgery Units. Next there is reviewed effective assistance of economical department's hospitals in minimizing stressful influence. Outcome analyse define positive correlation between grade of stressful states and over-time hours and also different influence of spell type to grade of stressful state. There was defined the most intensive stress factors in nurses work and methods used by nurses to elimination stressful states.