

August Sedlacek, a notable Czech historian, attended grammar school in Pisek. He moved back to Pisek upon retiring. Here he made acquaintance with Tereza Barcalova, a teacher, who later became his wife. The following publication represents their mutual correspondence from the time of their first meeting in 1915, until Sedlacek's death in 1926.