

In my work I try to give an overview of the psychological and neurobiological aspects of schizophrenia in the context of the current non-pharmacological treatment options of schizophrenia. At the same time it is an overview of the available methods of nonpharmacological interventions for schizophrenia.