In this thesis we deal with solving a combinatorics problem of finding the minimal covering of pairs by triples for a fixed finite set. We will show what is the minimal size of these coverings and more ways how to construct them. Second part of the thesis is a description of the attached program, which generates a minimal covering for a given set.