

When trying to answer the primary question if architecture is part of Arts education, I analyzed curricular documents, text-books and study Plans of future teachers in Faculties of Education in the Czech Republic, I offer ways of using the topic architecture in Arts lessons through the personality and work of architect Alvar Aalto, then I Present experience from the lessons and from gallery education.