

The work generally defines public administration informatization and electronization. It analyzes legislative security of public administration in relation to inhabitants. Shortly presents a historical overview of institutions, which are responsible for realization of information policy in field of public administration informatization and electronization. In deep go in for various projects in field of public administration and information needs of inhabitants in relation to public administration. The work brings overview about investigation results of exploitation of information and communication technologies. Analyses public administration electronization, and, after short historical overview, the work focuses on problems of electronic signature and electronic registries. In next chapter the work presents information systems of public administration, relevant legislation and amendment of act. Subsequently the work occupy by the Central Bohemia Region, which is part of the public administration, regional authority, which is one of its authority, and Central Bohemia Scientific library in Kladno, where analyzes development of informatization and electronization. Final evaluation of informatization and electronization in field of public administration in Czech Republic reports the last chapter of this work.
4