

Abstract

The bachelor's thesis deals with the historical developments of the Sokol Rozdalovice Gymnastics Unit from the beginning of the founding of the unit in 1893 until 1953. It outlines the history of Sokol in the Czech lands. It focuses mainly in the post-war period of the Third Republic and the beginnings of the communist dictatorship. The author reflects on the steps leading to the unification of physical education and effects on falconry. In the main part of the work with authoritative documents and correspondence of the association and focuses on the fact that your specific post-war period is reflected in the falconry activities. It monitors how political events and good conditions were evaluated in the association's documents. Another depicts the perception of time through the teenage periodical „Newsletter Sokol Rozdalovice.“