

This essay aspires to interduce phenomena bridge like potential subject of art works and reflection. The bridge such as not only two sides integration. Essay explore psychology and sociology aspects of bridge such as image of city civilisation, art aspects (construction, form, material), and its later art metamorphoses - entry to public space. Didactics section aspires to reduce students to creative, active reception world, that prepared for us our parentage.