

Abstract (in English):

This work is focused on mental illness. It deals deeply with schizophrenia, its forms, causes, symptoms and also impacts on social life of people with this diagnosis. How society perceives the mentally ill and which prejudices still persist.