

Abstract

The diploma thesis focuses on reading in Jiřice Prison. The aim is to describe the attitude of prisoners to reading, and their approach to reading. The theoretical part introduces key terms, importance of reading. The research was carried out in the Jiřice prison. It was a mix of qualitative and quantitative methods in the form of questionnaires and interviews. The research results provide feedback for the prison staff for their future work with prisoners.

Key words

attitude – Jiřice Prison – prisoners – reading