

Final bachelor essay is dealing with realization of establishing idea of eight-year grammar school – gymnasium.

It brings theoretical and operative guide e. g. how to start from, what instructions to follow, how to proceed in the concrete in case you decided to initiate establishing of the state – e.g. public gymnasium.

It goes from by the author made research work about number changes of grammar schools in the Czech Republic in last five years. This bachelor work results from the attitude of Ministry of Education towards the gymnasium question, from valid educational law and from the experience which the author – proposer gained by the realization of establishing project for eight-year gymnasium.

For successful realization of establishing project for eight-year gymnasium