

Anotace – anglicky

This diploma thesis deals with veiling of the Muslim women in Europe. It introduces the interpretation of the veil as a religious symbol by the European Court of Human Rights as well as by some constitutional courts in Europe. The author describes muslim veil from the perspective of Islamic and Arab world. The thesis is focused on the bans and legislative regulation of this religious symbol in public areas.