

Abstract

Title:

History and development of the tennis equipment.

Aim of the work:

Process an integral, tabular and synoptic historical development overview of the tennis equipment. This overview will cover the period since the early beginnings of the game to present days.

Methods:

Advance work has historical character therefore used methods are historiographical methods such as chronological method and historical method.

Results:

Produce tabular description of the tennis equipment by means of reading and studying entire available sources refer to the tennis theme.

Key words:

Tennis equipment, tennis racket, tennis ball, stringing, material, history.