Course of defence: The defense took place online via the MS Teams platform. The doctoral student presented his dissertation entitled Foucault and Violence: A Genealogy of National Belonging and Representative Power in Turkey. First, the doctoral student introduced his topic and research. Then in his presentation, he focused on the changes he had made since the small defense. Subsequently, the opponents presented the testimonials and asked the doctoral student additional questions, to which the doctoral student answered. Subsequently, the Commission asked what the central question of his dissertation research is. The Commission appreciated the historical part of the work, which has undergone significant changes since the small defense. On the contrary, the Commission criticized the philosophical part of the work, which deals with political philosophy.
