

This report includes severance of social security benefit of system social policy. The report is divided into two parts. Teoretical and practical. Report has about 50 pages. Part of essay is 8 side dish. Teoretical part is staking out conception of social policy. Social security is presented in the main part of report. Social assistance is attending dutiny social network. In practical part is compare of new system to payment of benefits. There is describe bridging period between rules and describe situation which influence bridging period. In the last caption are allocated positive and negative aspects of new system. Part of the last caption is compere of financial resources of social benefits, which were payed out in period on August 2006 to May 2007. In the end are proposed measure of negative aspect to minimize this negative aspects.