

This work regards late ancient authors and their view on German ethnics. Authors focus in problems inside Rome empire and relationship to Germans, especially customs, culture, military conquests and problem of German religion. These facts try to compare with Rome civilization, also try to rehabilitate Rome society. Also are looking for possible option integration Germans into Rome's world.