

This work with the name Octavio Paz - Pere Gimferrer: "The poetry is a form of friendship. The poetry: agreement, accord." maps friendship of Mexican writer Octavio Paz (1919-1997) and Catalan author Pere Gimferrer (1945). Initial studying source is set of published one-sided correspondence Memorias y palabras (Memories and words). Unfortunately the correspondence written by Gimferrer to Octavio Paz is missing and so the book is a labyrinth of questions without answers and answers without questions. Reading the book is connected with solving and making coherence. In spite of this, the book is a unique information source about professional and private friendship of two writers and literature critics. After clarification of literature parallel it was necessary to study available literature work of both writers, studies in professional magazines, collections and monographs. This work uses the newest literature materials and Internet sources.
