

Abstract

This bachelor thesis deals with the role and significance of the Tangun myth in Korean history. It is based on historical sources that were necessary not only for the bachelor thesis itself, but also for the very understanding of the myth in Korean context. Although the work also deals with the pre-modern period, it puts emphasis mainly on proving the continuity of the myth in Korean history and its validity in modern times.