

Summary

Wheelchair sports – current possibilities and attitudes of persons with physical disability in the Czech Republic

Objective: To describe current problems in sports activities for disabled persons in the Czech Republic (taken from the interview).

Methods: Method of direct questioning in the form of a regulated interview.

Results: Research results enabled a thorough interpretation of the current situation and opportunities in sports for disabled persons in the Czech Republic. Research was carried out with a group of disabled persons.

Keywords: wheelchair sports, regulated interview, possibilities and attitudes of handicapped.