

This graduation theses endeavour to find out the efficiency of care of specialist classes students, how former students evaluate classes for dyslexic students and how they assert themselves. The main goal is to analyse and compare concrete answers from absolvents of those classes collected from questionnaires. Furthermore based on those gathered results is trying to consider in which direction these high schools should be heading to, to be most satisfactory for the students – specialized classes absolvents.