

This final assignment is focused on the description of some basic family traditions and habits of slovakian Roma, which are still living settled in the way of their life.