

The goal of this paper is to resume the development of the Czech and Slovak pension systems and to compare microeconomic and macroeconomic levels of chosen proposals created by Czech political parties with reform which already has been implemented in the Slovak Republic.