

This doctoral considers by improvement of metaphonological abilities with help of the Training of Language Abilities by Elkonin. In it the programme is aplicated on specific groups of children with faults of communication process - with delayed speech development simply, soft mentaly handicap and with marks or syndrome ADD/ADHD. It describes changes necessary for these groups to succeed in this programme.

Theoretical part is given to starting points, which D. B. Elkonin could use in his time. It is also given to nowadays opinion on problems of metaphonological abilities in the world.