

Abstract

Title :

Comparison selected indexes of game performance successful and unsuccessful teams in football.

Purposes work :

Find requirements for team success in elite football.

Method :

Convert to needed informations was used observation method. Comparison of four successful and six unsuccessful teams in the 2006 World Cup. Research has been quantitative and qualitative character.

Results :

Results were used at search evolutionary trends of success in play of elite teams and either as instructions for training process.

Keywords :

football, game performance, success