

Abstract

Bachelor thesis „Influence of press agency service on contents of sport pages in national newspapers“ deals with a role of Czech press agency in the Czech media environment, its relationship to nation wide serious journals and the way how agency reporting can influence the content of sport pages of those magazines.