

The goals of my work, "Art therapy focused on the blind people," i.e. blind people can draw, they are interested in drawing and the therapy improves their psyche. Two-year research with blind girl Iva was focused on the learning and improving of her ability to draw. I added the interviews with blind artists, their opinions to the art therapy and art classes.