

In the present work we study the functions of the first Baire class. In the first chapter we prove some of their properties. Second chapter focuses on characterizing the functions of the first Baire class on separable metric spaces using the  $\varepsilon - \delta$  formalism.