

Abstract in English:

Theoretical part of the thesis provides overview of foreign documents defining the role and competencies of teaching librarian. Then it summarizes their shared features. Afterwards, the theoretical part presents overview of documents and activities affecting the professional profilation of teaching librarian in Czech Republic.

The research part of the thesis investigates a small sample of czech professionals of this specialization. It aims to analyze forms, subjects and target audience of their teaching activities. It further analyzes their skills, the ways these skills have been developed and factors affecting this developement.

Research assessment provides comparison of case studies of teaching librarians in Czech republic. Comparison is complemented by structured summary of competencies of teaching librarian which includes findings from both theoretical and research part of the thesis.

Key words:

Teaching Librarian, Teacher-librarian, Instruction Librarian, School Librarian, Competencies of Teaching Librarian, Role of Teaching Librarian