

We present overview of discussion among the greatest physicists from first half of last century. The discussion led to discovery of quantum entanglement. We build mathematical formalism of quantum entanglement for bipartite systems. With that formalism we count quantum entanglement in system given by Lipkin Hamiltonian. We plot the results in graphs and we discuss the results.