Date of defence: 15.09.2021 Venue of defence: Praha
Attempt: regular

Course of defence: The committee initiated the defence by inviting the student to provide a brief overview of the main findings of the submitted dissertation. The student proceeded to do so and explained the main findings concerning the securitization processes of the environmental migration by the European far right. Dr. Stritecky took the role of summarising the referee reports, emphasising the critical questions raised in the reports, mostly pertaining to the scope of the work. The student provided a response, explaining the difficulties of generalising based on a limited selection of cases and provided a justification for the exploratory nature of the work. The committee concluded the defence as successful.
