

This thesis is an attempt to present complex portrait of Giani Stuparich. I focused both on his life - ethnic origin, political orientation, attitudes towards the ethnic issue of the Austro - Hungarian empire and the aftermaths of war experience (isolation, moralization) - and on his work. His work and life are inseparable aspects of each other.