

This graduation theses consider a children theme, whose health requires hospitalization and solving their education problem. The hospital school taking care of education and training process assurance, but work with children individualize certain specifics, which is target the graduation theses. Differentness of education coming out from psychology of sick child, family members and the hospital environment. This graduation theses presents operation basic school in the hospital and introduce examples education of children, who are hospitalized in FN Motol.