

This thesis. Geological guide through Novokninsko, deals with enhancing children's knowledge and securing space for their own opinion about history, geological history, regional mining tradition and importance as a prominent golden ore deposit throughout the history of the Czech lands.

I checked upon the extent of knowledge and understanding of this matter among pupils of second stage of elementary school.